DESCRIPTION OF HALLBERG-RASSY 36 MK2

The Hallberg-Rassy 36 is a fantastic blue-water sailboat for anything and everything you can think of. It is a solid, high-quality build, beautiful in its lines and gives its owner pleasure and security in all situations. Stable and safe enough for all oceans, but at the same time with dimensions that make the boat a pleasure to also do coastal sailing, very enjoyable in any beautiful archipelago. With a draft of 1.70 m, the canals through Europe are another exciting opportunity for an HR 36 owner.

More information on the model can be found at Hallberg-Rassy's website, here <https://www.hallberg-rassy.com/yachts/previous-models/hallberg-rassy-36>

Everything that is a proper blue-water cruiser from the Swedish island of Orust is part of the package. The lines from German Frers give the boat an unmistakable beauty and the boat is easily identifiable as a Hallberg-Rassy. The lines also provide very respectable speed for a 36-footer. A supermodel for a couple with guests or a family with two children.

This Hallberg-Rassy 36 mk2 from 2002 has been in the same ownership since new, is very well equipped since new as well having been carefully updated and maintained during its lifetime. In addition to this, has always enjoyed being stored in a heated storage during the winter. This Hallberg-Rassy 36 comes with full history and full documentation. As a Hallberg-Rassy 36 Mk2 from the model year 2002, she enjoys the more modern Volvo-Penta D2-55.

A brilliant opportunity to sail away in a late Hallberg-Rassy 36 Mk II from 2002. Now give me that horizon
