DESCRIPTION OF ELAN 31

A sporty yet easy-to-handle yacht for those who appreciate true sailing – whether you're an experienced sailor or a beginner.

The interior is simple yet functional.

In the classic saloon there is a large folding table and settees that double as extra berths.

The galley includes all the essential functions, and the navigation station works equally well for navigation as for office work.

The forward cabin has a V-berth, and the aft cabin features a wider berth.

In the head there is a shower and a separate space for drying clothes.

The deck layout is designed for comfortable yet efficient sailing, and the tiller steering gives excellent feel and control of the boat.

The yacht is in very good condition and has only been used for family cruising.

Winter-storage in a heated hall in Hanko, about 1.5 hours west of Helsinki – Finland.
