DESCRIPTION OF HALLBERG-RASSY 37

The Hallberg-Rassy 37 is undoubtedly one of the renowned Orust yard's most successful models of all time. The boat embodies classic Swedish craftsmanship with excellent sailing performance, a beautiful interior, and robust quality. In the cockpit, the crew is well-protected behind the windscreen with easy access to sheets and navigation.

Below deck, you are met by the galley directly to port of the companionway and the navigation station opposite to starboard. Forward is a spacious salon with room for family and friends. Just forward of the main bulkhead, the head is smartly positioned for privacy. Further forward lies the V-berth cabin. All the way aft is the aft cabin, or the "owner’s cabin," which is a more fitting term in this case. Directly beneath the cockpit is the incredibly spacious engine room, with plenty of space for maintenance and even the installation of a watermaker or other equipment if desired.

Amorina, as this boat is named, has sailed in Nordic waters since she left the yard in Ellös. The owners have continuously updated her with new canvases, sails, instruments, and more. The boat is now ready for new owners who want to cherish and sail this beauty wherever the wind blows! Welcome to book a private viewing.
