DESCRIPTION OF FINNGULF 37

Finngulf 37 is a sailboat of the highest quality. In Finngulf, you will find all the hall-marks of Finnish craftsmanship, from the wood-work down below, to the attention to detail as well as the high-quality deck-gear from Harken. Finngulf 37 is fast, beautiful and safe, combining timeless design with modern lines

Finngulf is a 37 foot boat made for the sailor who appreciates good sailing performance and an attractive interior with more traditional wood furnishings and many smart and practical solutions. Designed by Karl-Johan Stråhlmann.

This boat is sold by its first and only owner, who took delivery in May 2008. She is well equipped and have been well taken care of. She is ready for a new owner to slip the mooring lines and sail off into the sunset.
